STANDARDIZED CONSTITUENT
MODEL BYLAWS
As of January 2016

Although state law takes precedence over these guidelines, it is important that ADHA Constituents not be in conflict with the bylaws of the parent organization. Therefore, these guidelines and model bylaws have been developed to ensure that Constituents and Incorporated Components are in compliance with the bylaws of the American Dental Hygienists’ Association.

I. Constituents are governed by the not-for-profit corporation laws of the state in which they are incorporated. As such, prior to adopting or revising its bylaws, a Constituent should consult the laws of the state under which it is incorporated. In most cases, these laws are governed by the Secretary of State or Commonwealth and information may be found on their respective websites.

II. Regarding Article I, Name and Purposes, a Constituent may individualize its bylaws to reflect its purposes and mission, providing they are not in conflict with the purposes and mission of ADHA. The purposes of the Constituent must be focused on the state association. Goals do not necessarily have to be included in the bylaws. If they are, it is logical for Constituent goals to reflect the nature of a state organization.

III. Regarding Article II, Membership, the voting and non-voting membership categories must be identical to ADHA’s, with the exception of Life Membership. In some cases, a state may have granted an individual life membership. However, that individual may not be a life member of ADHA and be required to pay national dues. In other cases, such as in past ADHA Presidents, a member may have life membership on the national level but not on the state level.

If a dental hygienist meets the criteria for any one of the voting membership categories, that dental hygienist cannot be placed in a non-voting category. Privileges of membership may be adapted to the Constituent. The remaining sections in this article should mirror the intent of those of ADHA, with the addition that the Constituent should also be notified of a member’s resignation.
IV. Regarding Article IX, Committees/Councils/Task Forces, Constituents do not have to list the committees in their bylaws, but if they do, it’s important to detail their respective responsibilities as they vary from committee to committee. For example, a Constituent may not have a Finance Committee because their Executive Committee handles financial responsibilities.

V. Regarding Article X, Constituents and Components (Incorporated or Unincorporated), this should mirror the language set forth in the guidelines. Constituents charter and have responsibility for Incorporated and Unincorporated Components, as national does for Constituents.

VI. Article XVI, Amendments, this should be similar to that of ADHA, but notice of intent, etc., should be submitted to the Constituent or Incorporated Component president, Unincorporated Component leader or executive director and the time frame can be suited to the Constituent calendar.

VII. Regarding Article XVII, Dissolution, this must mirror the language set forth in guidelines and be in compliance with federal and state laws.

VIII. Regarding Article XIX, Supremacy Clause, this must be used as set forth in the guidelines.

Once your Constituent has adopted revised bylaws, a hard copy should be submitted to the Director of Member Services no later than sixty (60) days after their enactment. They will be reviewed to ensure compliance and will be placed on file.

Please note: Constituents may amend their purposes and mission, but they may not be in conflict with the purposes and mission of ADHA. Questions regarding amending this section should be directed to the Director of Member Services. Constituents may not amend Article II, Section 2, Membership Categories, or Article XIX, Supremacy Clause, without prior written approval by ADHA.

Questions should be directed to the Member Services Division, 312/440-8900, ext. 1, or memberservices@adha.net.
